BOLLINGER BABY CEASES STRUGGLE

Defective Child is Permitted to Die in Chicago Hospital

DOCTOR IS CRITICISED

Physician Who Decided Against Operation is Alternately Praised and Accused

MURPHY UPHOLDS HAISELDEN

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—The little Bollinger baby which has been making a fight for its life unaided by the doctors and nurses at the German-American Hospital, where its mother lies ill, ceased to struggle tonight. Death came shortly after 8 o'clock, and the deformed, partially paralyzed mite of humanity ended its brief sojourn on earth.

Mother is Not Told.

The mother, who lies in an adjoining room from that in which the child has been kept for the six days of its life, was not told of the babe's death. Doctors in attendance thought it better to wait until tomorrow. Just before the little one died it was baptized John Bollinger.

She has three other children, all of whom are physically and mentally normal. Her fourth child's deformities, physicians claim, were caused by a serious illness from typhoid fever through which the mother passed recently before the baby was born.

After a consultation of hospital surgeons and nurses a vote was taken on whether it were better to operate in an effort to save the child's life. All but one nurse voted in favor of permitting the child to die. To this plan the mother consented after being told that the little one, should it survive, would be a helpless cripple all its life and might be mentally and morally defective as well.

Babe is Watched Constantly.

For a little more than twenty-four hours after the ballot was taken the babe lay in a basket covered over with eiderdown and watched constantly by a physician and a nurse. Occasionally the babe cried out, but for the most part it remained quiet. In an adjoining room lay the mother, resigned to the fate that had been decreed for the infant she had jeopardized her life to bring into the world. Sometimes she sobbed; at other times she asked about her babe; but always she maintained that it would be better off dead than alive.

Meanwhile the subject of the propriety of sacrificing the infant that it might not grow up a burden to itself and a possible menace to society was the subject of widespread discussion. Dr. H. J. Haiselden, who decided against an operation, was visited by many medical men today, and telephone calls alternately accused and praised him. He remained unaltered in his conviction that death was the greatest blessing which could be hoped for the infant. The principal physical deformities of the baby are the closure of the intestinal tract, paralysis of the nerves of the right side of the face, the absence of the right ear, blindness of one eye and malformation of its shoulders.

Dr. Haiselden, who officiated at the birth, noted the absence of a neck. The brain he found to be only slightly subnormal, but the cranial nerves were absent or undeveloped.

Would Be a Hopeless Cripple.

"If he grew up he would be a hopeless cripple and would suffer from fits," said the doctor.

"Would his mind be clear? Would his soul be normally alive?" one of the visitors asked.

"That I do not know, but the chances are against it."

The questioner cited the case of Roswell Smith, a supposedly harmless defective who, after reaching the adult stage killed little Hazel Weinstock, for which he was hanged.

Another visitor remarked that Fyodor Dostoeysky, born a defective, who gambled and had fits, developed into a great novelist and the greatest psychologist in Europe.

Treat Baby as If It Were Uncanny.

Most of the visitors treated the baby, which lay in a little bundle in a private room, as if it were uncanny. Dr. Haiselden, who condemned it to death, alone treated it like a human being. He looked into the litfle twisted face and patted its cheeks.

"He will be dead before the night is over," he said.

"It would be a moral wrong," the doctor continued, "to allow it to live. It seems to me a city that allows a blackhand outrage a week, a thousand abortions a day and an automobile accident every round of the clock is hardly in position to criticise a man who holds that death is preferable to the life of a defective."

The telephone rang, Dr. Haiselden answered, and for five minutes talked with a woman.

She pleaded with him to save the baby's life. When he returned from the telephone he smiled grimly.

"She called me names," he said. "It's strange what a fuss people are making over this case when all these abortions go almost unnoticed. I wouldn't do that."

The little bundle which was the center of all eyes stirred and a faint cry was heard.

"Not much longer to wait, little one," said the doctor gently. Then he added to those near him: "He's dying."

Murphy Upholds Haiselden.

Dr. John B. Murphy and other physicians and professional men and women, including a number of clergymen, generally took sides with Dr. Haiselden.

Dr. Murphy said: "The baby's life is in the hands of a higher power. Nature will prove the best remedy."

Dr. Rosalf M. Ladova commented: "A life is a life and I wish Dr. Haiselden would step out and let someone else operate."

Clarence Darrow, the lawyer, known also as a humanitarian, remarked: "Chloroform unfit children. Show the same mercy that is shown beasts no longer fit to live."

Mrs. Anna Bollinger, the mother, remained in a room nearby. Many times she asked: "Is it dead?"

CABLES OFFICIAL REPORT ON SINKING OF ANCONA

AUSTRIAN FOREIGN OFFICE HANDS STATEMENT TO PENFIELD

Is Virtually Identical With Communication Sent by Wireless From Berlin—Lansing Awaits Reply to the Questions.

Washington, Nov. 17.—American Ambassador Penfield today cabled the state department an official statement concerning the sinking of the Italian Steamship Ancona which had been handed him by the Austrian foreign office, apparently before he received the department's instructions, cabled yesterday to seek the Vienna version of the tragedy. The text of the communication virtually is identical with that given out in Vienna by the Austrian admiralty and sent to this country by wireless from Berlin. It said that the Ancona fled at full speed when a warning shot was fired across her bows and denies the allegation of the Italian government that the steamer was shelled after she had come to a standstill and that other shots were fired at life boats and at persons swimming in the sea. After the receipt of the report it became known that Secretary Lansing considered that the state department now had in its possession sufficient official information to form the basis of an inquiry of Austria-Hungary regarding its attitude toward the conduct of submarine warfare. The secretary indicated, however, that no communication would go forward until a reply had been made to questions submitted to the Austrian foreign office by Ambassador Penfield.

It is presumed that the cablegram directing the ambassador to ask for specific and detailed information crossed in transmission the dispatch received today.

CHICAGO SOCIETY WOMEN FORM EMERGENCY NURSING CORPS

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Twenty women prominent in Chicago society have organized an emergency red cross nursing corps and begun a course of training for the work that army nurses must do. Not only is it their purpose to be ready at a moment's notice should the United States need their services in case of a disaster similar to the Iroquois fire or Eastland wreck they will be ready to supplement the services of hospital nurses. Arrangements have been made with one of the large hospitals for the society women to assist in the surgical cases at the institution.

POSTOFFICE FORCE STRIKES

Fairmount, W. Va., Nov. 17.—Clerks from neighboring towns were rushed late today to take the place of the twenty five clerks and carriers in the local postoffice who struck, it is said, as a protest against the discharge of W. H. Brand, assistant postmaster and three other employes. Postmaster Charles E. Manley said tonight that conditions would become normal by tomorrow.

TERMS REPORTS RIDICULOUS.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 7.—When asked today concerning rumors to the effect that a deal is pending for the sale of the White Automobile company here to the J. P. Morgan interests, President Windsor T. White of the company said: "As far as anything I have seen printed on the subject is concerned, the statesments are so ridiculous that I have not deemed them worthy of denial."

TO ISSUE AN ORDER IN COUNCIL

London, Nov. 17.—An order in council will be issued shortly declaring that during the continuance of the war all male Britishers of military age desiring to leave the United Kingdom for any purpose must obtain special permission. This permission will not be given without good cause.

HOSPITAL SHIP SINKS; 100 DROWN

Anglica Strikes Mine and Goes Down in Mid-Channel

RESCUE SHIP FOUNDERS

Collier Lusitania Strikes Mine Just After Lowering Boats to Aid Anglica

PATROL VESSEL SAVES 300

DOVER, Nov. 17.—The hospital ship Anglia, with about three hundred wounded men aboard, in addition to the crew, nurses and attendants, bound from France for Dover, struck a mine in mid-channel today and sank in a short time. Nearly one hundred men, most of them seriously wounded and therefore in their cots, lost their lives. The collier Lusitania, which was nearby at the time of the accident, immediately went to the assistance of the Anglia, and her boats had just been lowered when she also struck a mine and foundered. All her crew were saved.

A patrol vessel succeeded in rescuing 300 of the Anglia's passengers and crew, including some nurses. A number of bodies were recovered.

Issue Official Report.

London, Nov. 17.—The following official communication concerning the Anglia disaster was made public:

"The war office reports that the hospital ship Anglia struck a mine in the channel today and sunk. The total on board was thirteen officers and 372 men of other ranks, of whom about 300 were saved by a patrol vessel.

'Another ship proceeding to the rescue was also sunk by another mine."

Another official communication says:

"King George was shocked to hear that the Anglia, which so recently conveyed him across the channel, has been sunk. His majesty is grieved at the loss incurred, but trusts that the survivors have not unduly suffered from their terrible exposure."

The Anglia was a merchantman taken over by the British admiralty after the war began and refitted as a hospital ship. She was commissioned in August of last year.

There are four British steamships named Anglia. The one converted into a hospital ship probably is the former London & Northwest Railway company steamer of 1,862 tons gross. She is 329 feet long and was built in 1900 at Dumbarton. The other three steamships are small vessels.

At the time she was commissioned the Anglia was in charge of Commander Oscar V. de Satge, retired.

Treneglos Is Sunk.

London, Nov. 17.—The British steamer Treneglos has been sunk.

The Treneglos was a vessel of 3,886 tons and was owned by the Hain Steamship company of St. Ives, England.

THREE BRANCHES OF ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS TAKE PART IN PARADE

Mrs. Irene Cooper of Decatur is Named Warden of Rebekah Assembly—Give Banquet for Mrs. Tandy.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 17.—The grand parade tonight in which all three branches of the Order of Odd Fellows of Illinois participated was one of the most elaborate ever seen in this city by a fraternal organization. More than 3,000 were in the marching line.

Late today Mrs. Irene Cooper of Decatur was elected warden of the Rebekah assembly against Mrs. Lottie D. Scherrer of Granite City whose election was expected.

Other Rebekah officers are: President, Mrs. Laura Latham of Eldorado; vice president, Mrs. Cora Neff Phillips of Bushnell; secretary, Mrs. Mae E. Crowell of Rockford; treasurer, Mrs. M. F. Turner of Cambridge and Chief of Examiners and Instructors, Mrs. Grace A. Henry of Mendota.

A banquet was held tonight at the St. Nicholas hotel in honor of the out going president, Mrs. Myrtle W. Tandy of Jacksonville.

Both the Rebekahs and the Grand Lodge representatives will finish their work tomorrow afternoon.

DEFENDS ADMINISTRATION.

St. Louis, Nov. 17.—In defense of the National administration, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Vrooman declared here tonight that "paid advocates and walking delegates of high finance are going about the country attempting to discredit the Wilson administration by saying that the various departments of government are throttling business by too drastic regulation."

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS

ADD TELEGRAPH BRFS . . . . . .

MacGuire was shot by Mrs. Manley on the night of March 29. She testified today that she though he was a burglar trying to enter her house.

CONSIDER TENTATIVE DRAFT OF NEW SHIP PURCHASE BILL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—A tentative draft of the new government ship purchase bill which will be urged by the administration at the coming of congress was considered today at a conference at the treasury department.

Secretary Redfield and Solicitor Thurman of the department of commerce went over the proposed measure with Secretary McAdoo. The draft follows the lines suggested by Secretary McAdo in a recent speech outlining the purposes of the administration as to naval auxiliaries and the upbuilding of the American Merchant Marine. Before the measure is put in final form to be presented to congress it will be laid before President Wilson for his approval.

TRUSTEES TO CONTROL ROAD.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 17.—Detailed examination of the re-organization plan of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad which became available in complete form here today, revealed that the plan places control of the roads in the hands of trustees for five years.

POSITION OF SERB ARMY IS CRITICAL

Main Forces Now Encompassed on Every Side But One

JUNCTION IS PREVENTED

Situation on French, Italian and Rnssian Fronts Is Unchanged

BOMBARD GERMAN POSITIONS

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Both the military and diplomatic situation of the allies in the Balkans are disquieting, if not critical, a fact which doubtless led to the visit of the British prime minister, Mr. Asquith, David Lloyd-George and A. J. Balfour to Paris for a conference with the French cabinet and General Joffre, the French commander in chief.

Serbs in Critical Position.

The main Serbian army, under General Putnik, which is operating in the north, is now encompassed on every side but one and, being cut off from the south by the Bulgarian advance beyond Tetovo, must depend on the rough roads thru Montenegro and Albania for any supplies from the sea.

In the south the Serbian position is almost as bad. The success of the Bulgarians' flanking attack on Babuna pass and their advance from Veles have prevented the hoped-for junction of the Serbian and French forces. This leaves the Serbians only two lines of retreat, one into Albania, where they may be harassed by unfriendly tribes, and the other across the Greek border, where they are in danger of being disarmed and interned.

It is to prevent the latter eventuality that the entente allies are putting forth every effort, and unquestionably this matter has been discussed in Paris by the British and French ministers. The British government has taken further action by the issuance of an order that no Greek vessel, except those loaded or unloading, may proceed to their destinations; while Denis Cochin, member of the French cabinet, who was given an enthusiastic reception at Athens by the municipal authorities and the people, is expected to express very firmly the French view of what is considered the unsatisfactory reply of Greece to the entente powers' request for the safe conduct of both Serbian and allied forces should they be compelled to retire into Greece.

Kitchener in Gallipoli.

Lord Kitchener, the British war secretary, who, it has been stated, was to back M. Cochin, is now reported in Gallipoli, altho, according to rumor, King Constantine expressed a wish to see him.

Like Italy and France, England now demands that Greece shall either now join the allies or translate her benevolent neutrality toward the entente into a clear declaration that she will attempt to disarm neither the Serbians nor the allies should they be forced back over her frontier, and that she will afford further facilities for the landing and transport of allied troops.

There are no changes on the French, Italian or Russian fronts, but the presence of Russian warships on the coast of Courland, where they have been bombarding the German positions, suggests that General Ruzsky has not concluded the offensive which he undertook west of Riga.

The loss of the British hospital ship Anglia in the English channel and another steamer which went to her assistance is believed to have been due to mines which recently broke from their moorings in the recent storm. Of less than 400 persons aboard the Anglia, 300 were saved by a patrol boat.

CONFER AT WHITE HOUSE.

Washington, Nov. 17.—To smooth out difficulties in the way of party success in New Jersey was the object of a conference at the white house today between President Wilson and Democratic leaders of that state, including among other Governor Fielder.

PERMITS NO FRESH LOADING.

London, Nov. 17.—With regard to the reported embargo on Greek ships in British ports, the Greek legation here says Great Britain has consented that all Greek ships loaded or loading may proceed to their destinations but that no fresh loadings will be permitted.

SPRY WILL ANSWER WILSON'S MESSAGE

PRESIDENT REQUESTS RECONSIDERATION OF HILLSTROM CASE

Governor Will not Indicate What his Answer Will be—President's Second Intervention Causes Astonishment.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 17.—President Wilson's telegram to Governor Spry requesting a consideration of the case of Joseph Hillstrom probably will be answered early tomorrow. The governor had the message under consideration this afternoon and announced this evening that he expected to have an answer ready tomorrow forenoon. The Governor would not indicate the nature of his answer.

The president's second intervention caused astonishment and wide comment here today. Hillstrom was sentenced to be executed October 1st. He was granted a respite by the governor at President Wilson's request Sept. 30th. In that instance the president acted on a request from the Swedish Minister who was urged by Governor Spry to submit new reasons or facts to justify clemency at the meeting of the board of pardons, Oct. 16th. No new facts wer presented at the meeting and Hillstrom's attorney said he knew of nothing to be aded to what had already been offered.

The request of the president today coming just on the eve of the second date set for the execution aroused great curiosity here as to what reasons have been presented to the president to obtain his intervention. No new evidence in the matter has been made known here since the case was originally tried. A local firm of attorneys not previously associated with the case, examined the record of it recently at the request of the Swedish minister and has forwarded its report by telegram to him.

TAKES EXTRA PRECAUTIONS IN CASE OF CAPTAIN HALPIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Extra-ordinary precautions were taken by Judge Baldwin today to see that neither the jury nor the witnesses in the case of Police Captain John J. Halpin, accused of accepting money for the protection of swindlers, received any information they should not have. He ordered the jury room inspected before allowing the jurors to enter and ordered everyone in the court room to remain seated while the jurors went from the room to the box. Bailiffs guarded their progress thru the court room.

Judge Baldwin also ordered all witnessses from the room and stationed a bailiff at the door to see that none returned except when called.

SEVEN ARE HURT, FOUR PROBABLY FATALLY, IN MINE EXPLOSION

DUQUOIN, Ill., Nov. 17.—Seven men were injured, four of them probably fatally, in an explosion of gas at the mine of the United Mining company at Buckner today. The mine is fifteen miles east of here and the news of the explosion was received here by telephone.

About 500 men were in the mine at the time of the explosion, the message said. The explosion was confined to a pocket near one of the entrances, which limited the amount of damage and injury.

TOP WORKS OF MINE SHAFT ARE BURNED

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 17.—Fire originating in the boiler room at the Woodside Coal company's mine here at 3 o'clock this morning, destroyed the entire top works of the shaft, causing a loss which was estimated early today at $50,000.

Four shot-firers who were in the mine when the fire broke out, made their escape thru the escapment shaft.

REDUCE OPERATING REVENUES.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—While the thirty-fifth annual report of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway company and proprietary lines made public here today shows a deficit of $734,676, the analysis in foot notes remarks that operating revenues were reduced $1,561,588 by increasing depreciation charges formerly one-quarter of one percent, to a minimum of two and one-half and a maximum of three per cent.

RECOVER SIX BODIES.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 17.—Workers delving today in the debris in the third level of the Northwestern Improvement company's coal mine at Ravensdale recovered the bodies of six more victims of the explosion yesterday which killed thirty-one men and injured three others. Three bodies were taken soon after the disaster occurred. Three men taken out unconscious last night were revived.

STATE CLOSES CASE.

Joliet, Ill., Nov. 17.—The state closed its presentation of testimony today in the case of Joseph Campbell, negro convict charged with the murder of Mrs. Odette Allen, wife of the former warden of the penitentiary here. Twelve witnesses waited to be called when the announcement of the state's attorney was made. It came as a surprise.

U. S. YARDS MAY BUILD WARSHIPS

Private Bidders Apparently Fail to Keep Estimates Within Limit

BIDS NECESSITATE STUDY

Many Modifications Are Proposed—Daniels Unwilling to Say What Course He Will Follow

RESULT OF WAR IS SHOWN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17—Because of the apparent failure of private bidders to keep their proposals within the $7,800,000 limit of cost set by congress for the hulls and machinery of battleships numbers 43 and 44, bids for which were opened today at the navy department, construction of both vessels may be undertaken at government navy yards. The New York and Philadelphia government plants submitted estimates of less than $7,000,000 each for ships propelled with the combination steam and electric drive to be used in the new superdreadnought now building at the New York yard. These were the lowest bids and the same yards also submitted the lowest figures for ships equipped with Parsons steam turbines, the basis of all but one of the private bids. The Mare Island yard with an estimate of $7,413,156 for the turbine ship was next lowest.

Submits Four Alternate Proposals.

The lowest private bid was that of the Fore River ship-building company, which submitted four alternate proposals. Each was made under stipulated modifications to the department's specifications which apparently would bring the total cost far above the $7,800,000 maximum.

The bids of the other two private bidders, the New York Shipbuilding company and the Newport News Shipbuilding company, also proposed modifications and careful study will be necessary before the exact cost of the ships can be determined under each bid.

Pending the result of that study, Secretary Daniels was unwilling to say tonight what course he would follow should all the private bids be outside the limit set by congress. It is understood however, that an effort will be made to induce the ship companies to reduce their figures before it is determined to give the work to the navy yards.

The secretary made it clear that he believed it necessary to equip two more government yards for battleship building, regardless of the final decision as to the pending bids. The New York yard is the only one so equipped now but the Philadelphia and Mare Island yards can be made redy for big jobs at relatively small expense.

Shows Result of War Demands.

The result of the European war's demands on American markets is shown by the fact that the hulls and machinery of the new battleships Mississippi and Idaho were contracted for at $7,115,000 and $7,250,000 respectively a year ago, while today's private bids for virtually identical ships ranged from $7,229,000 to $7,775,000 with various qualifications such as stipulations that the government must assume all insurance charges, pay for test trials and supply much portable material required to be finished by the contractors in the advertised specifications and providing for the substitution of cheaper grades of steel and timber than specified.

New hull construction due to plans to lessen the danger from torpedo attack occasioned some of the increase.

TO RELEASE TRIEST.

New York, Nov. 17.—Friends of Wolfgang G. Triest, a New York contractor, received word from London that Mr. Triest's son, Kenneth W. Triest, formerly a Princeton student, will be released from the British detention camp at Chatham on Friday and will start for America with his father on Saturday.

Everybody makes mistakes and this is just as true of press associations as of individuals. After all, an association is nothing but a group of individuals and thus there comes an even greater opportunity to err. A mistake is glaring only when one professes to be infallible.

That "politics" form a necessary part of the program which results in the election of Methodist bishops is an open secret. The general conference of the church will be held next spring at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and already definite plans are under way for the selection of those those men who will direct the affairs of this great church. A movement has been started in Illinois to secure the election of Dr. J. W. Van Cleave of Decatur. He is now serving as superintendent of the Decatur district and is recognized as one of the strong men of the church. With Illinois Methodists presenting a united front in his support Dr. Van Cleave should be a formidable candidate for election to the honorable position which he is so well qualified to fill.

Car Jumping Bad Practice.

Automobile drivers are making well founded complaints because of the growing custom that small boys have of jumping on the running board or upon the rear springs of automobiles in motion. This practice is indulged in quite frequently by school boys when cars happen to be passing at the time of school dismissal. Because of the special efforts made by the police department to enforce the laws against speeding, car drivers are in most instances traveling at less than 15 miles an hour and at this speed it is quite possible for boys to "jump" the cars.

The practice is one likely to do injury to the cars and also there is great possibility of danger to the youngsters. Unless the boys can be impressed themselves with the danger of the practice there should be police action to put an end to it.

The Right to Life.

The fact that a deformed infant child was permitted to die in a Chicago hospital yesterday when there existed the knowledge that an operation might save its life, will open again in a very forceful way a discussion which has often been given prominence. It is the old question of the duty to prolong the life of an infant known to be a defective.

There are some medical men and others who have studied the problems of insanity and defective mentality, who take the extreme view that it would be right and proper and for the good of humanity to end the life of the insane. Those who take this radical view are comparatively few, but a still larger number of those who may be termed specialists in investigation believe that no law of heaven is broken when no effort is made to prolong the life of an infant known to be hopelessly defective. A few there are who go to the extreme length advocated by Clarence Darrow, who has declared that such children should be chloroformed and given the same degree of humanitarian treatment that is accorded the lower animals. There is indeed a great question as to the right course when there comes a time to decide whether every possible effort shall be made to prolong a life which it is certain if continued will become a burden to itself and to society.

Who can say that the Chicago woman who yesterday consented that no operation should be performed and the life of her babe should go out, was not prompted by the deepest mother love? The infant was physically deformed and mentally deficient and there is no more pitiable object in all the world than a child thus hopelessly handicapped.

Public Improvements.

Records of public improvements unfortunately indicate irregularities in a great many cities, altho they are not so frequent now as was true before the public improvement act contained its present provisions. In St. Louis recently statements were made and proven showing that contractors interested in street paving awards had been active in the circulation of petitions calling for paving improvements. In the St. Louis case there seems to have been a desire to have the improvements made, but it has happened in a number of other cities that manufacturers or dealers in certain materials have circulated petitions for the very purpose of blocking improvements.

When an agent has seen that material which he does not sell is likely to be used for a street improvement he sometimes encourages the property owners with whom he is friendly to start a movement for some other material and in the discussion of the differences of opinion and materials which follow by the board of local improvement is postponed to some indefinite time. This has happened in Jacksonville.

While no great amount of street paving was done this year, there are indications that the local board of improvement is seriously determined upon considerable paving for the coming year. It is understood that the intention is to get as much preliminary work as possible done this winter so that work on the needed pavement may begin as soon as spring weather comes. The board has indicated that there is pavement and sidewalk work in Jacksonville which is urgently needed if the city is to make progress and there is the firm intention to see to it that these improvements are made. Jacksonville needs some other betterments but none so urgently as new sidewalks and pavements.

WHAT IT COSTS TO PROVIDE FOR TWO

One hears some funny things about hotels and other public places. The other day at one of the hotels in the city a traveling man opened a discussion about the ability of the average man to provide for a wife. According to this man no man should get married without he was making $50 a week.

This leads one on to some interesting things. The first is, how many men are there in the country who are making $50 a week or even $25 a week. The next is how many men in these United States are raising families of goodly size of fifty or sixty dollars a month. It is safe to say there are far more of them than there are of the $50 a week variety.

It is true that the cost of living has advanced. Yet despite this fact many men are getting married and are raising children and maintaining a home on far less than this man figured a man should have before contemplating matrimony.

There is something peculiar about the average young man. He has always been the same in all ages and times. When we say the average young man we mean the one who works for a living. The average young man soon gets a sweetheart. All of us have experienced that stage in life. When this occurs the young man begins to take the young woman out. They go to the theatre. There are buggy rides and candy and flowers. When the thing is summed up the young man will spend as much showing the young woman a good time as it would cost them to live if they were married. Getting married is largely a question of spending one's evenings at home and saving the money one used to spend in pleasure. There is far more pleasure in the economy of a good woman in front of a cosy fire in the winter or on the front porch in the summer than there is in going to the theater and eating candy by the bushel.

Experience shows that those who really want to do something in the world usually succeed in matrimony. They raise families and give them the best advantages that are to be had and produce the best men and women of the community. The home furnishes the influence which sets every good movement in motion and it is matrimony which first of all makes the home possible. Some of the happiest and best homes in this country are maintained by wage earners who have comparatively few dollars to spare above the absolute cost of living.

DEAD LEAVES.

The fallen leaves were lying thick upon the withered grass. "My lawn's no longer span and spick, alack," I cried, "alas! The look of things imparts an ache, and kills my sunny smile; I'll get a muzzle-loading rake and heap them in a pile." A learned professor came along, just at the fateful time, "To rake the fallen leaves is wrong," he said; "in fact, a crime. The sod demands the nutriment that rotting leaves bestow, so let them with the soil be blent, and they will make things grow." I thanked that learned and able guy, and gave him a cheroot; then took the rake and laid it by, and played upon my lute. The leaves grew deeper on the lawn, blown there by every breeze, and when I took a walk thereon, they reached up to my knees. Then ambled to my garden gate the sawbones, stern and pale. "You make me tired,' he said, "you skate—you ought to be in jail. For public health have you no care, most reckless of all knaves? These rotting leaves pollute the air, and send men to their graves." And thus it's been my journey thru, a journey rough and long; whatever I attempt to do, is sure to be all wrong.

GRADUATING EXERCISES AT BROWN'S BUSINESS COLLEGE

Annual Event Was Largely Attended and Many Students Receive Diplomas.

An audience that completely filled all available space in the large assembly room of Brown's Business College gathered Wednesday evening to enjoy the annual graduating exercise of the institution. A very enjoyable feature of the program was the excellent music by the college orchestra which did admirable execution elicting many handsome compliments.

After several numbers Principal D. W. Geer said he was glad for three things that evening: The presence of so many; the presence of Prof. Springgate; the presence of District Superintendent S. B. Price.

The later was then presented and in turn introduced to the audience Mr. Richey, who proved himself to be a vertiable edition of Dad Sears making his audience laugh and shed tears at will . Of course anything like a report of the gentleman's speech would be impracticable for it would be like trying to describe the effervesence of a glass of soda water or the course of a streak of lightning.

He said he was afraid to announce his subject lest he should be like the primitve orator who told his audience that he had had a splendid address in mind but his subject had caved in on him and he would have to disappoint them. He said the great vocation of a speaker was to entertain and if a man did a thing unusually well he would surely succeed.

District Superintendent S. B. Price of Peoria was then introduced and gave the young people some excellent advice. He took for his theme the survival value of service and spoke at considerable length. He said self preservation was a good thing and it was useless to deny it. We were in the world to defend ourselves and to do this successfully and win our way it was necessary to prepare well for the battle of life. Progress was gained by close application. The time was in the beginning when woman ruled exclusively but later on man asserted his rights and now both had a share in the management of the world. He told the young people the value of thoro preparation and training of the mind for service. Service was the noblest end and aim of man in all things.

Prof. Geer then said it was his pleasure to hand the presenting of the diplomas over to Prof Springgate who was received with hearty applause and prefaced his part on the program with some timely remarks and good advice.

The personnel of the orchestra follows:

Director—John Kearns.
First violin—Helen Sorrells.

GREAT REDUCTIONS IN OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT THIS WEEK AT HERMAN'S.

MAN WAS TOO FRIENDLY.

J. B. Beekman, who has been visiting relatives in Menard county, had quite an unpleasant experience at the station at Petersburg Wednesday. As he was standing there a man he had never seen before rushed up to him and grasping both hands tightly, exclaimed, "This is the man I have been loking for, this is the man." The stranger held so firmly to Mr. Beekman's hands that he could not shake him off, and it soon appeared that the man was demented, and was on the way to Jacksonville state hospital. Two men were with him and it took their combined efforts together with that of Mr. Beekman to loosen the insane man's grasp. Mr. Beekman in talking about the incident afterward said he had not been greatly alarmed but that the experience was far from a pleasant one.

LIBRARY BOARD HELD BUSINESS SESSION WEDNESDAY

Report Shows Larger Number of People Constantly Using Library—Per Cent Increase During Past Year.

An adjourned meeting of the library board was held Wednesday afternoon when the reports for the preceding month were presented and several matters of business were given attention. The report presented by Miss Lydia M. Barrette, the librarian, indicated that 114 more persons borrowed boows from the library during October than at any previous time. Of this number 46 were children and 68 adults. During the month there were 33 renewals of borrowers' cards. Miss Barrette mentioned that during the year the number of books borrowed from the library was 8,504 more than the record for the previous year. These figures indicate a growth in circulation of 20 per cent.

The librarian's report included a comment on the state meeting of librarians recently held. At that convention Miss Ahern stated that 50 per cent of the population of a city should be patrons of the public library and that the average per cent is 20. In Jacksonville Miss Barrette said that 30 per cent of the people used the library and that every effort should be made to bring the figure more nearly to the desired mark of 50 per cent. Of the 50 per cent who do not use the library, some are illiterates, others who have no inclination to use books or magazines and still others who have so much literature in their own homes that they have no occasion to use the facilities offered by the public library. In Jacksonville according to the last census there were 488 illiterates.

One of the subjects discussed at the convention was the relation between school libraries and the public library. Something has been done in Jacksonville in establishing branch libraries in some of the schools and there is an opportunity for further development in the use of the library in this way. To extend the plans largely, however, would mean that there would have to be many duplicated books and the board does not now have sufficient funds to warrant special work in this line. One of the speakers at the convention quoted Dr. Bardwell, district superintendent of the high school of New York, as saying: "It may be confidently asserted that the most potential single agency in the modern cosmopolitan high school is the library." In some cities it has been possible to extend the work of the library in the county in co-operation with the schools and mention was made in Miss Barrette's report of a book sent from the library here to Franklin where it was read by every pupil in one of the schools. This incident gives some idea of the possible scope of library work.

Under a new law the library next year will have about 40 per cent more funds than in the past and this will make possible more extensive book purchases and some desirable improvements. Recently the board had the interior of the building repainted and plans are being considered for the erection of brick stack in connection with the heating plant. The present steel stack is almost worn out and the board has an idea that it would be more economical to erect a brick stack, which would be permanently useful.

Yes boys we have just received more of those 50c school sweaters at TOMLINSON'S.

EXPENSIVE COLORING.

Jacksonville merchants who deal in carpets, dry goods and clothing are wondering what will be the future of goods depending on dyes heretofore amed in Germany. Some may be produced here, but not many very soon. A Jacksonville merchant said yesterday that at the sale of unclaimed freight in New York city there was a can of methalyn blue which ordinarily would sell for $60 under normal conditions but when it was put up at auction it brought $1,559. The can was lost in transit in some way so that it came under the auctioneer and hence the sale.

The diagram shows how it works

Fresh air (just as with a furnace) is drawn in at the sides, heated evenly to several hundred degrees temperature, and discharged—not through the flue and chimney, but through the top of the hot-air chamber into the room. This creates a thorough circulation of hot air that will successfully heat several rooms. Even the upstairs rooms can be heated by the aid of a simple pipe connection.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

JOURNAL OF 1847

By Ensley Moore.

Member of Illinois State Historical Society.

As is known to many, the Morgan Journal, predecessor of the Jacksonville Journal, was burned out in 1859. The office was then in the rear end—up stairs—of the building at the southeast corner of East State street and the Square. The files of the paper were then destroyed, being a great loss to the publisher, and to the community as a means of historical reference. Only occasional copies of the paper are now in existence. It was only a weekly.

The issue of Friday, Jan. 29, 1847, in accordance with the custom of the times had this statement regarding the paper, under its main head:

"Devoted to Politics, Literature, Morality, Foreign and Domestic News, and General Intelligence." Not a little for a four page, seven column sheet to undertake. The editors were W. C. Swett and J. B. Shaw. The paper was published "in the building over O. Wilkinson's store, on the southwest corner of the Square, Jacksonville, Morgan County, Illinois."

The professional cards of Drs. N. English, David Prince, G. Y. Shirley (Physician and Dentist) and O. M Long appear. Of lawyers Hardin (J. J.) and Smith, Brown (Judge Wm.) and Yates, Wm. Thomas, H. B. McClure, Jas. Berdan and Wm. H. Sigler announce themselves.

In those days it was usual for a country weekly to begin its first page, after professional cards, with some paetry and a story. These were often furnished by local literati. Then would come general reading—secured, more or less, by skillful use of the scissors.

On the Journal's first page was a reference to a recent flood at Dayton—Ohio supposedly—telling of two young men rescuing nine persons from one house. They were David Johnson and Joseph Barnet.

"Look out! We learn that the Branch Bank of Indiana, at Michigan City, is about to circulate its paper in the northern part of this state, and that this object will probably be carried out by making arrangements with the Canal office at Lockport, etc., etc." That was the days of "Wild-cat" currency.

The second page is partly home brewn editorial or doctored matter. A main editorial is on a bill reported to the state house of representatives to sell the Northern Cross railroad.

"Mr. Morton (Joseph) of this county, in behalf of the committee, reported the Bill back to the House, with various amendments, on the 19th inst." Springfield wanted the road made over to Alton. Jacksonville wanted it to stay to Meredosia, as it did, till taken to Naples in 1849.

"Dickens' new work "Dombey and Son,' it is estimated will be worth $50,000 to him."

There is a news letter from Springfield dated Jan. 23, signed Mecenas.

Under heading 'Illinois Conference Female Academy," notice is made of that coming institution. "Rev. Wm. H. Milburn as Conference agent is now collecting funds with a view to the purchase of a suitable site and the erection of commodious buildings." The editorial is followed by the bill to incorporate the school.

U. J. Devore sent from Winchester a quotation from a letter from Capt. Montgomery, referring in part to Col. J. J. Hardin. The captain writes from Mexico. It will be recalled that the battle of Buena Vista took place in the following February, when Col. Hardin fell.

"From Mexico" gets about four inches of belated news. "News from Europe" had about as much space. "Congressional Doings" had nearly half a column.

As The Journal was a Whig paper it was not ardently supporting the Democratic administration.

Nearly all of the fourth page is given up to advertising, in which D. Robb shines out. Jackson, Wilson & Co. had a steamboat and a locomotive (without a cab or tender) to head their "new goods." This ad. to run one yeor.

E. B. Kirby, clerk of the circuit court of Scott county, signs some legal notices, as does Dennis Rockwell, clerk of Morgan.

Under "St. Louis Market, Jan. 25, 1847," is this note: "Ice continues to obstruct the river, and reports from above and below are discouraging as to the early return of successful navigation." That was when steamboats "ruled the wave." Flour was quoted at "best country, $3.60; city mills, $3.75. Corn, 38 and 40c, with sacks. Butter, prime, at 10@12c. Lard, 5@5 1-2c per lb. Dried fruit — Peaches, $1; apples, 75c. Bacon—Hams, 4c; sides, 4c; shoulders, 2c (Carry the news to our butchers of today.) Beef cattle, $2.50@3.50 per 100 lbs., and in demand. Hogs, in good request at $2.75@3.25." Wm. N. Ross, D. B. Ayers & Co. (M. P.), R. Bibb, R. Hockenbull, Kibb & Lathrop, Cornelius Hook, McDonald (Alex) and Chambers, and Coffman & Son are advertisers.

The fourth page has almost a column of reading matter, and then advertisements. There are estate notices of William King and Moses McCurley. A drug ad. says the stuff is for sale by R. Hockenhull, Jacksonville; Jacob Bergen, Princeton; Henrickson & Reinback, Franklin; A. Kinkead, Waverly, and Charles Lyons, Exeter.

McDonald & Chambers say: "Bonnets — We still have on hand a handsome assortment of Florence Braid bonnets, some extra fine, and a large lot common, all of which we will sell at very reduced prices." Another drug is blazoned as for sale by D. B. Ayers & Co., Wallace & Diller, Springfield, and John Brookie there, E. & S. Vancyckle, Naples, and R. B. Hatch, Meredosia. Another lot is offered by Walihan & Wardsworth, Bethel; John Maldelbaum, Naples; Cyrus Matthews, Exeter; S. R. Simms, Winchester, "and in nearly every town in the state."

King & Co., St. Louis, 62 Main street, advertise fashionable clothing, Frederick King of St. Louis and S. Day of New York constituting the firm.

W. Catlin had fire insurance, and James Harkness had queens and glassware. A. Hammond had grindstones. R. Bibb had cotton yarn. D. Robb also had the latter. J. W. King had silver spoons.

"W. Catlin,'" on the first page, "has just received on sale, a choice variety of spectacles, spoons, pencills, thimbles, needles, etc., etc., which he offers very low." Wm. A. Conn had a card on the first page announcing pork and beef packing in St. Louis, and Conn & Chambers were "Commission and Forwarding Merchants, Meredosia, Ill."

The paper says there are 5,000 miles of railways in the United States, "of which 500 miles consists in short lines connected with coal companies and private establishments, leaving 4,500 miles of swift steam conveyance. In the construction of railroads and the electric telegraph, the United States are far in advance of Europe, in proportion to population."

While spoken of in connection with railroads, the telegraph was not then used by railways. It was some years after that the running of trains by telegraph was begun. The "electric telegraph" was a new thing in 1847. The "swift steam conveyance" was also an editorial figure of speech at that time.

MEET TO PLAN REVISION OF GOVERNMENT REVENUE

Washington, Nov. 17.—The Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives has begun the work of readjusting its revenue policy. One of the biggest problems before Congress at the coming session will be the methods to be adopted that will insure a supply of funds in the treasury for the regular running expenses of the government. There are many views expressed and many new ideas have been put forward, but the probabilities have been narrowed down to a few simple expedients that seem likely to be adopted.

The great deficit in customs receipts cannot be made up during the present war conditions. It is also pointed out that calculations on the revision of the tariff are difficult to make.

The first measure which the revenue builders of the Ways and Means Committee will pass on is the extension of the extra revenue tax, commonly known as the "war tax." This measure has fulfilled its aim to a highly satisfactory extent, the administration believes, and conditions are the same today as when it was passed last year. There is no doubt among the officials here that this tax will be extended, and it is possible that some revisions may be made in it.

The next point in the revenue situation is the proposal to continue the present sugar tax, which was reduced in installments by the Underwood tariff, and is due to expire in May. The current year produced $30,000,000 from sugar duties and the treasury department believes the figure will reach forty millions during the next year, if the tax is extended. The wiping out of the sugar tax had many opponents who will gladly support the movement to retain this tax.

It is proposed by some influential leaders to dig deeper into the income tax, by lowering the exemptions from four thousand to three thousand dollars income. Many thousands of the middle class would thus be reached, and the revenue would be generously enlarged. But the political advisers of the President are wary of this measure, for it is suggested in a political year, and the thousands of pocketbooks that would be hit might make a considerable difference in the political outlook next fall.

A supertax on inheritance is also suggested, to be levied over and above the state levy. This plan will have a number of advocates, particularly as the tax is easily collected because of the careful appraisal of estate. Representative Hull is the father of this proposal.

Narrow margins have been the rule in the treasury's assets during the past year, and at times the necessity for issuing bonds seemed imminent. The administration held off on this course.

ATTENDED EXERCISES.

Among those from out of the city who attended the commencement exercises last night at Brown's Business college were John Colwell of Alexander, Miss Ada Stoner of Pittsfield, Miss Eva Spink of Chandlerville and John Rainey of Mexico, Mo.

WEIDER-DONALDSON CASE OCCUPIES ATTENTION OF COURT

Question of House Rent Up for Settlement—Other Cases Disposed of During Day.

The case of Oleta Weider and Oscar Weider against Richard Donaldson occupied the attention of Judge Jones in the circuit court nearly all of Wednesday. It seems that some months ago Mr. and Mrs. Weider went to the home of Mr. Donaldson to live. According to their evidence they were to have free house rent estimated at ten dollars per month and Donaldson was to pay $1 per week board in addition. After the agreement had been in effect for several months it seems that Donaldson got married and wanted his house. The Weiders had to move out and they sued for damages under the alleged contract that had been made.

The case of Oleta Weider was first called and given to the jury about 2 o'clock. The jury found the issues for the defendant. The case of Oscar Weider against Mr. Donaldson was then heard. By agreement the case was heard by a jury of eight men. The jury in this case also returned a verdict finding the issues for the defendant. Mr. Donaldson was represented by Paul Thompson while Mr. and Mrs. Weider were represented by John M. Butler. The following orders were entered during the day.

Law.

The people of the state of Illinois ex rel vs. Henry Looman, Albert Ritcher, Frank Riser, Frank Taggard and Thomas McCallister, quo warranto. Demurrer to answer.

Soleta Weider vs. Richard Donaldson appeal from J. P. Jury finds issues for defendant. Judgment on the verdict in favor of defendant against plaintiff in bar of action and for costs.

Oscar Weider vs. Richard Donaldson appeal from J. P. same order.

Chancery.

Lillian B. Myers vs. James F. Myers, diorce. Decree for divorce and restoration of maiden name signed and approved.

Julius E. Strawn by administrator vs. John R. Roberison et al. Bill for injunction and relief. On motion of complainant suit dismissed as to defendants Howard C. Plumb, Chester A. Plumb and C. H. Lockett.

Wemple Bros. vs. Al Robinson et al, foreclosure. Masters report of evidence and conclusions approved and decree for foreclosure and sale approved.

Edward Wemple et al vs. Charles Rossman et al, foreclosure. All defendants to original bill except. The Gibson Lumber company, called and makes default.

Docketed.

A new case was docketed in the law cases in the circuit court yesterday. The case is the city of Waverly vs. Adma Felter. It grew out of a disturbance of the peace in Waverly and was tried in the justice court in that city. An appeal was taken by the city to the circuit court.

Samuel Storey of Murrayville was among Wednesday visitors in the city.

UNITED STATES WILL FIGHT FOR RARE BOOKS

Washington, Nov. 17.—A collection of rare books and manuscripts gathered in and near the Holy Land for the Congressional Library and the Smithsonian Institution are in the hands of Turkish officers at Jaffa, who refuse to allow them to leave the country. This is the report made to the state department by Ephraim Deinard, who has arrived home after gruelling experiences with the Turkish authorities. Only by using the wireless to the American government was Mr. Deinard freed from jail some weeks ago, where he was held on charges of being a spy. The state department, it is expected, will take the matter up with the Turkish government with a view toward having the books forwarded. Mr. Deinard has also furnished the state department with a description of Turkish cruelties which he personally observed.

MUNICIPAL LEAGUE MEETS.

Dayton, Ohio, Nov. 17.—The National Municipal League, composed of representatives of various cities throughout the country, opens here today its annual convention. The city experts will be here for three days. William Dudley Foulke of Richmond, Ind., is president of the league, and the membership is rapidly nearing 3,000. Many questions concerning city government, in all its branches, are on the programme.

SHOW TWILIGHT SLEEP AT HOSPITAL CELEBRATION

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Twilight sleep will be demonstrated at the Mary Thompson Hospital in this city during the celebration which began today of the institution's fiftieth anniversary. Clinics and lectures are also scheduled for the three days' observance. Doctors and surgeons will hold a reunion, and the nurses and former nurses have planned their own observance.

Mrs. Mabel Ewing Sterns of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. James B. Black of Virginia are guests at the home of Mrs. S. C. Brockman on Hardin avenue.

Some Topics of the Farm

Believes in Dairying.

A. R. Jordan is farming three miles north of Jacksonville and gives special attention to dairying. Just now he has 11 or 12 cows and is delivering milk regularly to the Jacksonville creamery. He attends practically every sale in the county and is always a bidder when good cows are offered. He frequently makes purchases, but as he makes sales also from time to time the herd on his farm does not increase more rapidly than he wishes. Mr. Jordan is a firm believer in dairying as a matter of profit and also because permanent farm betterment can be secured in this way.

The Ticknor Sale.

A sale of personal property belonging to the estate of the late L. F. Ticknor, and of cows belonging to L. L. Ticknor was held Wednesday afternoon at the Ticknor farm five miles northwest of Jacksonville. Charles Taylor was the auctioneer and Richard Leake was clerk. The personal property brought fair prices and the cows sold at prices ranging from $45 to $58. Calves sold at from $15 to $16.50 a head. The attendance was fair and the prices in the main were satisfactory.

Will Raise More Fruit.

L. L. Ticknor, who some time since purchased the 40 acre tract, which belonged to the estate of his father, L. L. Ticknor, will live on the farm. Yesterday he sold off practically all of the Jersey cows that he had been milking and in the future will pay less attention to dairying and more to raising fruit. The Ticknor farm is one of the oldest in the county where fruit raising has been made a specialty. The late L. F. Ticknor purchased it more than fifty years ago from an uncle and the greater part of the tract was planted in apples and small fruit including blackberries, raspberries and strawberries. The new owner believes there are good profit possibilities in fruit and he will renew some of the orchard stock and develop the small fruit as well.

Finished Threshing.

James Hennessey, who farms in the Joy Prairie neighborhood, threshed wheat, oats and soy beans yesterday with fairly satisfactory results. The wheat and oats were stacked after exposure to rainy weather for a considerable period but were found to be in excellent condition. The oats averaged about 40 bushels to the acre.

Hogging Down Corn.

Charles Middleton, who lives on a farm in the Point neighborhood, has 80 shoats that he has just turned into a 20 acre field of corn. They now weigh an average of about 125 lbs. and three weeks ago were turned into a field of corn of 5 or 6 acres. The corn in these fields Mr. Middleton thinks would average about 60 bushels to the acre and was not down any worse than the average. He believed that it would be a matter of economy to have the hogs eat the corn in this way instead of having the expense of cutting or shucking out the corn and ht determined to try the experiment. The plan of "hogging down" corn is not new and a number of Morgan county farmers have done this successfully for a number of years. There is practically no wastage and hogs stem to do better fed in this way than they do if the shucked corn is thrown to them on the ground or on feed-tables. Mr. Middleton has a 20 acre field of clover adjoining the corn field to which the hogs have access and he believes that if they will not do well with plenty of corn, clover and water that feeding cannot be made a success. Altho not thorolv convinced of the value of vaccinating hogs, Mr. Middleton had all of these shoats vaccinated some weeks ago. They were given the double treatment when they weighed about 60 lbs., as Mr. Middleton believes that because of the great prevalence of cholera that it was well worth while to try the experiment of vaccination. He has known of hogs thought to be immune which have died and is inclined to believe that if no stockman used the vaccination method that possibly the hogs of the country as a whole would be in safer condition.

Has Good Corn Crop.

W. M. Barbre, an arrival in this city and county last spring rented five hundred acres of the Jacob Strawn farm and has an encouraging report to make of his first year. He had 85 acres of oats of the Texas variety and they yielded 64 bushels to the acre. He managed to get them threshed from the shock without stacking and had good grain. Of corn he has 185 acres of which he cut 10 acres.

The crop will be some sixty bushels to the acre and a good quality. He prefers the Reid Yellow Dent. A part of the ground was fallow plowed and a part not and this year he says he could see no benefit in fallow plowing though in genral he believes in it and has done a lot of it himself. He has broken up fifty acres and put in the plow eight inches deep. He is a firm believer in thoro cultivation and rolls the young corn as long as he can do it without breaking it and this is especially desirable in dry seasons. Then he harrows and twice cultivates deep and then lays aside the shovels and only stirs the top of the ground keeping the weeds down and letting in some of the air. He cultivates as long as he can do so with a double team and this year stirred the ground with the cultivator five times. He had twenty acres of alfalfa which he cut four times and secured five tons to the acre and he considers the hay worth $12.00 a ton to feed.

It was not a very good season to save alfalfa but he is pleased with the result. He has a hundred cows, weanling calves and yearlings and says he means to raise calves which he thinks will pay well. He is partial to the reliable Short Horns, which he regards as best for the purpose though he thinks well of the white face Herefords and black Polls. One fact regarding this method is the maintenance of the fertility of the land which he regards as all important. For hogs he likes the Poland-China all things considered. He had ten ares of corn badly lodged and he turned a lot of hogs into it and they are harvesting it all right. He also feeds considerable shock corn which is a good way to conserve the fertility of the land.'

Profit in Large Farms.

(Department of Agriculture Letter.)

Under the conditions which prevail on the average American farm, the opportunity for making a satisfactory profit varies directly with the number of acres farmed, according to farm management specialists in the department. This statement is substantiated by figures gathered in the course of a survey which has recently been made by the department of a portion of Chester county, Pa. This survey in the opinion of the specialists, emphasizes, what has been called "the small farm fallacy," which is discussed at some length in a bulletin soon to be issues, Farm Management Practice of Chester County, Pa.

In the territory surveyed, farms of from 30 to 40 acres required for each crop acre $15 worth of machinery on an average, as compared with less than $9 worth on farms of 160 acres and over. The small sized farms needed one horse for every 9 acres, as compared with one horse for more than 17 acres on the larger holdings. In spite of this increased investment per acre, the small farms were not so well equipped with labor-saving machinery.

Less Profit on Small Farms.

On the farms of from 13 to 40 acres the average labor income—that is to say, the money which the farmer receives for his year's work after the interest on his investment has been deducted—was only $246, while on farms of over 160 acres the average was $1,575. From these and other figures which convey the same lesson, the investigators concluded that the small farm, carrying on a general farming business, labors under a fixed handicap that is inherent in its size.

This relation of the size of the farm to the opportunity for profit is declared in the bulletin already mentioned to be of vital interest "because of the notion which so widely prevails that the ideal of American agriculture is the small farm. Numerous real estate promotion schemes are based on this idea. It is a distinct fallacy. Very small farms are difficult to make successful anywhere, and it is only the exceptional man who is equal to the task. They must always be devoted to the most intensive types of farming, and the products of most kinds of intensive farming fluctuate greatly in volume and price, so that the business is very insecure. The danger is greatly magnified if the small farm is situated a long distance from market, for prices for their products do not have to fall very far until the transportation charges wipe out all profits. Even in the vicinity of the better markets these small farms succeed only in localities where they have distinct advantages for the particular type of farming which they follow."

GILTS SHOULD NOT BE OVER FAT FOR BREEDING

"After the gilts have been selected they need further attention, but not necessarily more expensive attention than the market animals require. They should be given pleny of range and forage so as to develop good constitutions and given rations which are not very fattening in character," said W. J. Carmichael of the University of Illinois in a recent article. "Less corn and more high protein feeds should be included in their daily allowance, because they are being kept to be developed for an entirely different purpose than are the market hogs. Hogs for the block must be fat to sell well, but those for the breeding pen should not be very fat to produce well.

"Many people are deceived and buy hogs almost on the basis of their weight alone, and they really lose sight of the size of the frame which supports the weight, consequently they not infrequently buy a 500-pound sow which is very fat and in reality of no larger frame than a smaller looking 350-pound individual.

"Keep the sows, then in a good thrifty condition, not over fat, and let them have all the necessary range, if possible away from other stock, especially horses.

"Some say that the sows are but a half of the herd, or, looking at it from the other angle, that the boar is a half of the herd, and it is fair to assume that this is true when we come to consider the character of the offspring, for they receive one-half of their characters from each parent. One very prominent breeder has stated that if the boar is an average boar he is half of the herd, but if he is a real poor one or an exceptionally good one he is all of it. There is a good bit of truth to that statement."

NATIONAL GUARD CAVALRY OFFICERS TO TAKE TEST RIDE

Major McNamee of the Fifth Cavalry, U. S. A., Will Accompany the Officers, Acting as Mentor—Will Ride 120 Miles.

Springfield, Ill., November 17—National Guard cavalry officers of Illinois, Wisconsin and Missouri will leave the armory of the First Cavalry in Chicago soon after daylight Thanksgiving day for a 120 mile tactical and test ride which will end Sunday, November 28. It is understood this is the first time National Guard officers have been required to take the test ride, which has been compulsary for regular army officers since the Roosevelt administration.

The officers of two troops of Missouri Cavalry, of Troop A., of Milwaukee, Wis., and of twelve troops comprising the First Illinois Cavalry have received orders to report to the First Cavalry armory in Chicago Thanksgiving morning. Major McNamee of the Fifth Cavalry, U. S. A., instructor for this National Guard cavalry district will accompany the officers, acting as mentor. Col. Milton Foreman of Chicago, commanding the First Cavalry, will be the ranking officer on the ride. Three of the troops of his regiment are stationed down state; "D" at Springfield; "G" at Peoria, and "B" at Urbana.

The first day's ride of thirty miles will not count in the test despite possible sore muscles and missing cuticle. During the first day the officers will be quizzled as to how they would dispose units of their commands under certain conditions. The second day the test ride begins and the officers must make thirty miles a day for three days, making ninety miles of test ride and thirty during tactical instruction. Field uniforms, without side arms, will be worn, and each officer will have to care for his own mount. As all the officers have received instructions to bring bedding rolls with them, many are wondering if they will sleep "out." A few who have made similar rides before with regular army officers allow that after a couple of days in the saddle, a rodf becomes a mere detail.

The ride is intended and will be construed as a demonstration of the physical fitness of officers to take the field, and no officer will be excused except upon a physicians certificate specifying disability.

FOR BRONCHITIS, PAINFUL COUGH, WHOOPING COUGH AND COLDS

Cheapest Remedy Made at Home—128 Teaspoonsfuls for 50 Cents.

When in need of a remedy for the treatment of Bronchial Affections, such as Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Stubborn Coughs, Colds or Hoarseness, don't simply ask the druggist for a "Cough Medicine" but get the best. Tell him to give you Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectorant, instead of being induced into buying something else purely on the strength of some testimonials or the exaggerated claims of the manufacturer. The same "Money Back" guarantee goes with every bottle of this remedy sold by M. E. Gilbert as does with Dr. Schiffmann's famous Asthmador and your money will be refunded, if it does not give perfect satisfaction; in fact even more, if it is not found the best remedy ever used for these affections. In buying this new remedy, besides securing the guarantee these druggists give, it will likewise be found the most economical to use for the reason that one bottle (5 cents' worth) of the most excellent cough medicine after being mixed at home with one pint of granulated sugar and one-half pint of water. One bottle will probably, therefore, be sufficient for a whole family, supply the entire winter, while the same quantity of the old, ordinary ready-made kinds of medicine would cost between $2 and $3. It is prepared from strictly harmless plants, contains absolutely no chloroform, opium, morphine or any other narcotic or injurious drugs as do most cough remedies, and it can therefore be given to children with perfect safety. It is pleasant to take and children are fond of it. Absolutely no risk whatever is run in buying this remedy under the above positive guarantee. R. J. Schiffmann, Prop., St. Paul, Minn.—Adv.

Will This Be Your Home?

When the snow falls, and the cold winds sweep 'round your home, will your wife and children inside be warm and comfortable and happy? Will every room in the house be opened up---every bedroom heated?

Or will the greater part of the house be closed up---unused during the entire winter? Will your children have to undress and go to bed in cold, unhealthy rooms? Will your wife be complaining of the frigid atmosphere of the few rooms that are not closed---because the stove does not heat them as it should?

Which Will be Your Home?

You can have every room in your house warm and comfortable on the coldest day of winter---and with less expense than is necessary to heat just a few rooms with an ordinary stove---if you buy a FAVORITE BASE BURNER.

A FAVORITE BASE BURNER will keep every part of your house warm all winter, and do it with from two to three tons of coal. Every square inch of the Favorite radiates heat which constantly circulates throughout the home, keeping every part of it at an even temperature, night and day.

Don't compare the Favorite with any other heating stove. The triple exposed flues and back—the "paper-tight" construction---the beauty of design—put the Favorite in a class by itself.

CHAS. B. GOUVEIA WRITES REGARDING JUVENILE BAND

Nearly every one will remember the juvenile band which Prof. Jeffries instructed some twenty or more years ago and the banquet they had at the Pacific hotel. A short time since Prof. Jeffries received from one of his boys now in Mt. Vernon the following pleasant communication:

Mt. Vernon, Ill., Nov. 4, '15.

Mr. C. C. Jeffries,
Jacksonville, Ill.

Dear Sir:—Only a few days ago I noticed an article in the Journal with a photograph of the band of 1910 and I could not help recall some of the many pleasures enjoyed during the three years of your efficient tutorship and also feel that I have had some thing added to my life that will always be appreciated.

I am sorry to say that conditions here do not permit me to belong to a musical organization, but it is a pleasure to know however that many of the class are today making an honest living out of the start they secured during the three years of our existence as a band. Others are getting many pleasures out of their instruments as a side line or as a means of home entertainment.

I suppose that the members of that class are scattered thruout the states of this great union but I dare say that there is not one who has not a warm spot in his heart for you and remembers with pleasure the events which took place in the band room, on the Insane Campus at Roodhouse, etc., or who regrets the time spent under your kind training.

It would be a pleasure to me to talk to the boys class of 1915 and tell them of some of these incidents and, if possible, try and add to their growing enthusiasm for the new organization.

I sometimes wonder whether Jacksonville and vicinity appreciates as it should the real benefits derived from having such a teacher in their midst. I hope that the boys whom you are taking under your direction this year will develop into a class that will be the crowning success of your life's endeavor.

I believe that I bespeak the sentiments of the class of 1900, not as an organization, but as individuals, when I wish you a long and prosperous future.

With personal regards, I am,
Yours truly,
CHAS. B. GOUVEIA.

Pyorrhea—the disease nearly everybody has

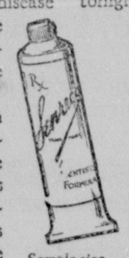

No matter how sound your teeth may seem to be, no matter how you may scoff at the idea of your having this disease, it is a positive fact that the germ which causes it is working now in your teeth.

The appalling discovery of this fact—that the germ which causes pyorrhea is one which inhabits every human mouth—was made over a year ago. Since then dentists have been urging everyone to take special precautions in their daily toilet to prevent this disease from developing in its acute form of bleeding gums, tenderness in chewing and loose teeth.

To meet the need for such a daily treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste.

Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sentanel Remedies Co., 505 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

LOOK OUT FOR COLDS---CATARRH

Don't let this Winter bring to you the annoyance of Catarrh and suffering which every man and woman who is afflicted with this disease, has cause to dread.

First of all remember, if you will continue to suffer with Catarrh, it is your own fault. Catarrh is worse in Winter because the most commonplace precautions against germs and contaminations are neglected.

We go to stuffy theatres and inhale over and over again vitiated and germ-laden air. We sit in over-heated rooms, neglect exercise, exclude fresh air because it's cold, and in a hundred ways do everything possible to assist in the ravages of a disease that is already making tremendous progress towards a complete sapping of vitality. It is small wonder that Winter brings additional annoyance to Catarrh sufferers. The nostrils, reasonably free in summer, are easily stopped up by the inflammation of the tender membrane, and the phlegm and secretions which cannot readily flow, aggravate the delicate lining of the throat and poison the system. Hawking and spitting becomes more frequent. In fact, Catarrh is not only a nuisance, danger and annoyance to the afflicted, but a continued menace to everybody. Anyone who comes in contact with Catarrhal germs, expectorated or exhaled in stuffy rooms, poorly ventilated theatres or cars, may contract the disease. They'll think they have taken cold, but it is more likely that this insidious waster of strength and vigor has hastened itself upon them. They will soon know the Catarrhal headache, the disagreeable closing of air passages, they may find it attacking the bones of the nose, the tissues of the ear, resulting in deafness, the loss of smell, for no part of a body is secure from the ravages of Catarrh. Catarrh makes you sick all over. It is a disease of the blood. It circulates through the system, and for this reason sprays, washes, vapours and salves must be failures in curing it. You can relieve Catarrh thoroughly and permanently. S. S. S. will cleanse the blood, relieve unhealthy secretions, reduce the membraneous swelling. It will literally wash the blood free from the poison. S. S. S. goes directly to the source of trouble, enriches, while it cleanses the blood. It is a wonderful tonic invigorator. Write us particulars of your case and let our physicians help you get rid of this stubborn and dangerous malady. Our physicians are trained specialists; their services cost you nothing. We will take pleasure in answering questions. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores. Refuse imitations. Write the Swift Specific Company, Medical Department, Room 15, Atlanta, Ga.

Sunday evening the fire alarm was given about 8:30 p. m. and a large number of our citizens responded to the call and found the north school building to be on fire. It just happened that Elmer Griffeth who lives near the building was returning home when he saw the blaze in the basement and gave the alarm. The fire department was soon at work and the blaze extinguished. Saturday and Sunday both schools were fumigated on account of the scarlet fever and Sunday evening a tub of sulphur was left on the floor of the sixth room and boiled over burning the floor all arouond it and the wood gave way letting the tub and contents fall into the basement where Mr. Griffeth saw the blaze. Had it been only a few minutes longer, the building would of been destroyed.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

SCARCITY OF OCEAN TONNAGE BRINGS DECLINE IN WHEAT

Rally Takes Place Near the End of the Session—Corn and Oats Drop.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Scarcity of ocean tonnage brought about fresh declines today in the price of wheat The market altho stady at the close was ¾@⅞c to 1@1⅛c net lower with December at $1.03¾ and May at $1.05⅝. Corn finished ⅜c to ½c down oats off ⅛c to ⅜c and provisions unchanged to 32½ cents higher.

Near the end of the session a rally in the wheat market took place as a result of some export business by way of the gulf of Mexico having been made possible owing to earlier declines in prices especially at Omaha.

The gulf sales were said to have been at the lowest basis so far on this season' crop.

Corn went lower with wheat and in consequence of a liberal crop movement from the southern sections of the belt. Besides eastern demand was slow.

Oats sympathized with the weakness of other grains. Some purchasing for the seaboard however, helped to steady the market to a certain extent.

Provisions scored gains in nearly all options notwithstanding a decided break in the price of hogs. The upturn was attributed chiefly to buying orders from the larger packers.

EXTENSIVE SPECULATION ATTENDS STOCKS SESSION

Sharp Recessions Are Experienced in Last Half—Rails Do a Little More Than Hold Their Own.

New York, Nov. 17.—Extensive speculation at higher prices in securities of all descriptions except rails and similar investment issues attended today's early trading with sharp recessions in the last half of the session. All the rails did a little more than hold their own, with moderate strength in a few of the high grade shares and some minor issues like Denver and Rio Grande preferred, Seaboard Air Line and Rock Island.

Partial explanation for the movement in the copper group was furnished in the afternoon when announcement was made of the forthcoming dissolution of the Guggenheim Exploration company which has large holdings in some of the more active metal issues.

Bethelehem Steel lost 14 points of its extreme advance closing at 480. United States Steel, which had risen over a point to 88 fell back to 87⅛, closing at that price. Prices were mixed, with an irregular undertone at the end. Total sales amounted to 1,060,000 shares.

Of conditions in the steel industry an authority stated that new orders were running steadily far in excess of current production. Copper metal is on a firm 19 cent basis, with a marked increase of demand.

BREAKS A COLD IN JUST A FEW HOURS

"Pape's Cold Compond" ends grippe misery—Don't stay stuffed-up!

You can end grippe and break up a severe cold either in head, chest, body of limbs, by taking a dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until three doses are taken.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffing! Ease your throbbing head — nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Componnd." which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.—Adv.

GIRLS! HAVE WAVY, THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Save Your Hair! Double its Beauty in a Few Moments—Try This

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Adv.

KEEP LIVER ACTIVE AND BOWELS CLEAN WITH "CASCARETS"

Best When Bilious, Sick Headachy, Constipated, or for Bad Breath or Sour Stomach.

Be cheerful! Clean up inside tonight and feel fine. Take Cascarets to liven your liver and clean the bowels and stop headaches, a bad cold, biliousness, offensive breath, coated tongue, sallowness, sour stomach and gases. Tonight take Cascarets and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing ever experienced. Wake up feeling grand.—Everybody's doing it. Cascarets best laxative for children also.—Adv.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes —Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter that one's system collects.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women, as well as men, take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets now and then just to keep in the pink of condition.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel—10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS TO BEGIN CONFERENCE SESSIONS TODAY

Jacksonville High School Dismissed For Remainder of Week—Grade Schools Will Continue as Usual.

Sessions of the annual conference of Illinois high school teachers will begin this afternoon in Champaign and will continue thru Saturday. The Jacksonville High school has been dismissed for the remainder of the week and all the high school teachers, together with Miss Helen S Cafky and Supt. C. E. Collins will go to Champaign to attend. Miss Agnes Lusk will be at the Central Buildings and will be acting superintendent for the remainder of the week. All work in the David Prince building and in the ward schools of the city will continue as usual.

The first part of the program will be a general session which will convene in the University auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening, Nov. 18. Dr. C. J. Johnson will preside and the subject of the Junior High scho l will be the topic for discussion. Prof. H. A. Hollister, high school visitor, will introduce the subject and a general discussion and announcements will follow.

On Friday there will be a session at 7:45 o'clock in the evening with Dean David Kinley, presiding. Following an organ prelude by Prof. J. L. Erb, there will be an address, "The High School Library," by Miss Mary E. Hall, of the Girls' High school, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Saturday, Nov. 20, the first session will begin at 9 a. m. with H. J. Barton presiding.

There will be an address, "The Direct Methohd in Teaching Latin," by Miss Theodora Wye of Columbia university, New York City.

A report will be made from the standing committees and general business will be transacted.

There will be an exhibit of library helps for high schools which will be open for inspection by teachers thruout the conference. This will be in the second corridor in the auditorium.

In the section meetings a number of local people or people known locally appear on the program, including Principal L. F. Fulwider of Mt. Pulaski, who will preside at an agricultural section meeting in the agricultural building. Prof. John G. Coulter will discuss "Science" and E. H. Taylor of Normal "Mathematics." Winfield Scott of Normal is a member of the committee on agricultural libraries and text books.

A. R. Williams of Normal university will lead a discussion on "What Commercial Arithmetic Shall Include and Why" and in the afternoon Prof. E. L. Boyer of Chicago Heights and formerly principal of the Bloomington High School will lead a discussion on the same subject.

County Superintendent of schools of McLean county, B. C. Moore, will preside at a meeting of county superintendents and village principal's section.

Miss Alice Treganza of the Bloomington High chool will lead a discussion in the domestic science section.

AT THE GRAND NEXT WEDNESDAY

Some three or four years ago there returned from a prolonged course of study in Europe a young girl, who at the time she had attended the public schools in St. LoLuis had been known as a "wonder-child" of the violin.

A single season in America, following pronounced success abroad, was sufficient to place Marie Caslova among the foremost of women violinists. Though much of her life has been spent abroad, Miss Caslova is an American, havong been born in the Ozark mountains, in Missouri, in 1895. When only 6 years old she began her musical studies under a young French instructor, continuing them as she progressed with the late Prof. George Heerich of St. Louis. Such encouraging progress did she make that she was taken to Europe when quite young and placed under the tutelage of the famous Bohemian violinist Sevcik, who pronounced her his most talented pupil in many years. Her advance was rapid. A further period of study was pursued in Berlin under Carl Flesch, and still further coaching was done under Arigo Serato.

While much was expected of the young artist by those who remembered the wonderfully talented child of former years, her astonishing mastery of the violin was a revelation to those who heard her. She has them ost facile fingers possible to conceiver, and her intonation is impeccable, her technique brilliant.

Miss Caslova has toured extensively, appearing in joint recitals with some of the greatest singers and pianists in the world. She was engaged for an extended joint recital tour with Johanna Gadski, the great Wagnerian soprano—a tour that served to make her name and art familiar throughout the entire country. She has also appeared as soloist with several of the great orchestras (the New York Symphony, Walter Damrosch, conductor; the Calgary, Canada, Symphony, the St. Louis Symphony, etc.)

It is not merely her marvelous technique (many possess that to an extraordinary degree); it is the breadth of her conception—the poetry and grace and ease with which she plays—that make Marie Caslova an artist to be reckoned with and given a place among the truly wonderful.

Miss Caslova will appear Wednesday, Nov. 24, at the Grand Opera House as soloist with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, Max Zach, conductor.

BEGIN EFFORTS TO CIRCUMVENT CHICAGO TICKET SCALPERS

Reports from Midway are That Scanlon, Larson and Dobson May Be Able to Play Saturday—Sparks Will Not Be Able to Take Part.

Chicago, Nov .17.—Reports from the Midway tonight that Scanlon, Larson and Dobson, who have been listed among the Maroon cripples, may be able to play against Illinois next Saturday did much to cheerChicago partisans. With Dobson and Flood both in the line-up the Chicago backfield would be greatly strengthened and Larson and Scanlon would put some needed power in the line Optimistic reports regarding the trio however, were offset by the more positive declaration that Benton Sparks, Stagg's star end would not be able to take part.

Efforts to circumvent ticket scalpers were begun today. David S. Merriam, business manager of the Chicago Athletic department said he would follow up a clew which, he expected would lead to some of the students or alumni who are believed to have helped brokers to get possession of the tickets. It is said however, comparatively few tickets reached the brokers. Extra seats put on sale today were all taken up.

FROM THE EDUCATOR'S NOTEBOOK.

Cincinnati—The annual meeting of the Association of Urban Universities, which was organized last year for the purpose of studying the special problems of institutions located in and serving large cities, has brought together at the University of Cincinnati a large gathering of leading business men, municipal officials and educators. The important feature of a municipal university should be its contribution to the industrial life of its city, by giving courses in business organization, accountancy, banking, finance, transportation and industrial organization. It is the belief of the city educators gathered here that the problem of our civilization is the problem of the city, and that the next advance in educational developement will be the founding of the municipal university. They recognize that we cannot have better cities until we have better citizens.

President Charles W. Dabney of the University of Cincinnati is presiding at the sessions of the convention. The formal opening was held last night, with the subject "The University and the Municipality." This morning "The Needs of the City" is the topic. The convention will hold another meeting tomorrow. Among the speakers are Dr. Philander P. Claxton, U. S. Commissioner of Education, Henry Bruere, chamberlain of New York, Prof. Leon Marshal of the University of Chicago, Chancellor Charles B. Norton of Buffalo, Dr. Robert A. Falconer of the University of Toronto, Dr. Hollis Godfrey of Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, George F. Willett of Boston, Charles F. Gettemy, Direcor of the Massachusetts Bureau of Statistics, Dr. Charles A. Beard of Columbia University, Dr. Henry M. Leipziger of New York, President L. H. Murlin of Boston University, Dr. Augustus R. Hatton of Western Reserve University, Cleveland.

Nashville—The second national conference on teaching for rural schools opened here today, under the auspices of the United States Bureau of Education. The first conference was held in Chicago last year, and was such a success that Comissioner Claxton arranged the present conference. The topic under discussion is "What the Educational Institutions of the United States are doing for the Cause of Rural Education." A general statement of the work was presented by H. W. Foght, of the Bureau of Education, and other speakers. Others who will be heard during the three day conference include Pres. D. B. Johnson of the N. E. A. Prof W. K. Tate of Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Dr. H. W. Suddh of Athens, Ga., Prof W. R. Hart of Amherst, Mass., Miss Mabel Carney of St. Paul, A. O. Thomas, state superintendent of Nebraska, J. H. Binford, state supervisor of Virginia. Miss Carrie Lyford, specialist in Home Economics, U. S. Bureau of Education, Prof. Mark Barrows of Kirksville, Mo., Pres. Charles Evans of the State Normal School, Edmond, Okla., and Prof. J. W. Bateman, of the State Normal School of Louisiana. During the conference, Dr. Philander P. Claxton will address the delegates on "The Definite Preparation Needed by the Rural Teacher."

Milwaukee—The annual convention of the National League of Compulsory Education Officials will be held here on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Between 500 and 600 members, representing the larger cities of the United States, are expected to be here. The father of this organization, which is now five years old, is H. R. Pestalozzi, chief truancy officer of the Milwaukee schools. Altho still in its formative period, the organization is an important one in the educational world, for its aim is to keep children in school. Discussions of the methods in vogue in different parts of the country are very useful to the delegates, and the attendance results are always an interesting phase of American life.

Washington—One hundred and fifty school teachers from Mexico, both men and women, are touring the educational centers of the Eastern states to study teaching methods. The visitors went to Boston first, and then came to Washington. They will also visit Philadelphia and New York, and will sail for home next month. The Mexican teachers were sent by General Carranza, and Jose Velasco, superintendent of schools in Mexico City, who is the official guide of the party, brought greetings from Felix Palavlaine, secretary of education in Mexico, who invites American teachers to visit that country "in the interest of international solidarity, and assuring them in the name of the Government every protection."

MEETING AT OLD SALEM.

Dr. C. C. Patchen has returned from Petersburg where he went to attend a meeting of the committee of the Old Salem cautauqua, looking toward the liquidation of the chautauqua debt. The debt is $10,000 and $3,945 has been secured in pledges and $2,882 worth of tickets have been sold for the ensuing year.

RELIGOUS CONGRESS TO BE HELD DURING CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

Mrs. Weber Develops Plan Following Inquiries as to What Part Religion is to Play in Observance.

Springfield, Ill., Nov.17—Following inquiries from well known ecclesiastics in various parts of the country concerning the part religion is to play in the Illinois Centennial Celebration in 1913, Mrs. Jessie Palmer Weber, secretary of the state centennial commission, has developed a plan for a religious congress embracing all denominations of Christians to be held here simultaneously with the anniversary demonstration.

Response to letters outlining the plan have been so enthusiastic that it is understood the commission will make further arrangements for encouraging the idea.

A gathering of the leading representatives of various denominations probably will be called early next near for the purpose of working out a definite program for the congress

WILL PLAT NEW TOWN.

Taylor Bros. & Walton, who completed a successful sale in Murrayville Tuesday, have announced another sale which will be held Tuesday, Nov. 23, at Clements Station. This station is on the C. & A. cutoff which runs from Murrayville to Springfield and is not many miles distant from Franklin. The tract which has been platted and will be sold off in lots is between the Flynn farm and the Chicago & Alton depot. The land was purchased from Mr. Flynn and is well located. Mr. Walton said last night that the lots and the streets will be found well graded and offering a god building opportunity. There is no town there now, so that this latest project of Taylor Bros. & Walton is really in town building.

CARTHAGE WILL COME SATURDAY

ILLINOIS COLLEGE IN LAST GAME OF SEASON.

Game Between Monmouth and Lombard Promises To Be Battle Royal —Millikin Plays Lincoln Thanksgiving Day—Meeting of Association in December.

Interest in the "Little Sixteen" conference, as far as local football enthusiasts are concerned, centers about the game here Saturday with Carthage College and the Lombard-Monmouth game at Lombard tomorrow afternoon. Other games in the conference will include William and Vashti and Hedding at Aledo, Lincoln College and Eureka, and Shurtliff College of Alton playing Bradley in Peoria.

There is just the one game between the rightful title of championship for Illinois, and that is Carthage Saturday. The visitors wish to get back home over the Wabash, so the game will be called at 2:30. The Carthage team is said to be composed of big fellows and they are being coached by one of the well-known Clark brothers of William and Vashti. Harmon will take no chances with his second team men in this game, as there is much at stake. As a rule, Carthage always plays a hard game on Illinois field, but the regulars should have no trouble in annexing the contest. In the game against Lombard, the Carthage aggregation scored, and it takes a good team to score against that Lombard bunch of huskies.

That game between Monmouth and Lombard promises to be a hard-fought one and no one ventures to predict the outcome. The Galesburg paper says: "As far as can be learned, the betting is in favor of Monmouth, no odds being given. This was the case in St. Louis, also, when Lombard did the unexpected to their team. If MoMnmouth wins the game, they will likely do some more dickering with Illinois College about the state title.

Millikin intended to play Charleston Normal Thanksgiving day, but the game was cancelled on account of the death of Paul, the fullback of the Charleston team, who died from injuries received. Millikin has signed up a contract with Lincoln for Thanksgiving day. According to the Lincoln papers, Holmes, the star punter of the Lincoln team, will not be able to play, and fullback will also be absent from the lineup. The superiority of the Millikin team will scarcely command a big crowd at the game. Naturally each team likes to play at home Thanksgiving day, but some teams must go away from home in order that this might be done. The college eleven who persistently demand that they play at home each Thanksgiving day should have the refusal of every team in the conference to play them on that day. As long as there are coaches in the conference who are willing to put up with this sort of thing, so long will it exist.

The winter meeting of the Illinois Intercollegiate Association will be held in Peoria Dec. 10-11. Some matters of importance are to be discussed. The desire of the "Little Five" to break into conference is an important item for debate.

COMMUNITY PROBLEMS.

Dr. Robert T. Shepherd, who has devoted considerable attention to community development plans, is now in Jacksonville and under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce a luncheon has been arranged for Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock when he will speak. This luncheon will be held at the Peacock Inn and Dr. Shepherd will present plans he has in mind for a "Midwinter Civic Festival" for community efficiency. According to Dr. Shepherd's ideas, there are various organizations working for betterment along different lines and these lines according to his ideas should be consolidated if the greatest good is accomplished. Several persons to whom the plans have been explained privately believe that there is an offered opportunity for community betterment and for this reason the luncheon has been arranged.

PROBLEMS CONCERNING FUTURE LIFE DISCUSSED AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Rev. John L. Brandt Talks on Future Recognition and the Intermediate State—Tonight, 'The Perils of Delay."

In a three-part sermon of unusual interest, the Rev. John L. Brandt discussed at Central Christian church last night three questions concerning life after death. In a forty-minute talk at the beginnig he expressed his beliefs regarding the intermediate state, answering the query, "Where shall we go when we die?" "Future Recognition," and "Christ Seeking the Lost," were titles of two succeeding brief talks.

Tonight Dr. Brandt's subject will be "The Dangers of Delay." This will be the next service to the last as the series closes Friday and a large attendance is anticipated. Scenes in India will be shown by the stereopticon after the regular service and after this the rite of baptism will be administered. Very beautiful was the illustrated song at the close of the service last evening. Miss Cora Graham sang accompaniment to twelve views illustrating "The Holy City."

Among those who have sought to answer the great question of the soul's destiny at death have been soul sleepers, spiritualists and believers in re-incarnation, said the speaker. The Bible teaches that after we leave the body we will be in Hades, the place of which is unknown. We shall be like Abraham and Lazarus and shall be in a place which has been divided into two divisions, the one a place of torment and the other, Paradise. In Paradise Christ preached to the dead, or those who had gone there before. This state shall last until the day of judgment when each shall receive God's final judgment and reward. Many references to scripture were made and many questions were asked by the audience and answered by the evangelist at the close of this sermon.

"Having buried most of my relatives and loved ones, it is but natural that I have studied this subject carefully and prayerfully," said Dr. Brandt in introducing the talk on recognition of others in the future state. "To me it seems perfectly reasonable that we shall know each other there. This is a belief that adds greatly to our joy and seems entirely harmonious with the teachings of scripture. David said, 'My boy can not come to me, but I can go to him.' Lazarus and Abraham appeared in thir own name and likeness. In the transfiguration scene, the three apostles recognized Moses and Elijah. Many times when death comes our loved ones speak to those who have gone before, calling them by name and indicating that they after all are not so far away and that we shall recognize them in that day.

"God appointed Christ to do his work and God makes no mistakes," observed the speaker in beginning the subject, "Christ Seeking the Lost." He sent the prophets and made no error in speaking thru them and He sent Christ who fulfills all prophecy. Christ taught as no other man taught, performed many miracles and wrought many other works which helped establish his authority.

"With many the great trouble is that they do not realize their lost condition. The good shepherdd goes forth to seek and to save that which is lost and so it is that Christ comes to seek and save the lost. The doctor precribes for the weak and diseased of body. Christ is the great physician. If we lose health, wealth or influence, we may regain them, but the soul that is lost is lost forever without Christ."

LOSS BY HAIL.

John Rainey of the northwestern part of Kansas is visiting friends in the city. His home was formerly in Whitehall and he is a nephew of Congressman H. T. Rainey. Last spring he graduated from Brown's Business College and went to his present home, where he secured a position in a bank and is doing well. He says the farmers all about his residence insure against catastrophoes like hail, lightning and tornadoes. Last summer a destructive hail visited his locality, and through the bank with which he is connected $87,000 went from insurance companies to losers by the storm.

AUTO TRIP FROM THE SOUTH.

C. H. Woodward and Dr. A. Babendrer, officers of the Nutritive Food company, who are now in Jacksonville, drove from Ocean Springs, Miss., here in an automobile. The journey which covers 1100 miles, was made in eight days. Mr. Woodward said yesterday that the journey was delightful until they struck the roads in southern Illinois, and below that point they found them graveled nearly all the way. Mr. Woodward and Dr. Babendrer came at this time in order to finally decide as to what they will do with reference to the establishment of a plant for the manufacture of whole wheat food. They have some plans for locating here and are also considering a proposition from Lincoln.

ILLINOIS TELEPHONE COMPANY SENDS DIVIDEND CHECK.

Thirty Fourth Semi-Annual Dividend Paid—Property Now Represents Investment of More than One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

The Illinois Telephone Company has just mailed its stock holders the thirty-fourth semi-annual dividend on its Capital stock. This company, which was incorporated in 1897 is a home institution, managed by home people and more than one hundred thousand dollars of its stock is owned by Jacksoncille people. The employes are home people. The pay roll for the company with more than one hundred employes, together with what is paid in semi-annual dividends amounts to more than sixty thousand dollars a year, the greater part of the money thus disbursed circulates in Jacksonville.

Before the Illinois Telephone company installed its system here, the rates paid in Jacksonville for telephone rental was considerably higher than now. There is no commodity from which people realize more for their money than they realize from the telephone service; as a time-saver and distance-annihilator the telephone is unrivaled. Besides the Jacksonville Exchange the Illinois Telephone Company maintains exchanges at Carrollton, Roodhouse, Murrayville, Hillview, Woodson, Alexander, White Hall, Manchester, Patterson, Bluffs and Greenfield. The Independent telephone companies transact business over one another's lines; nearly every city in the country is reached by the Illinois Telephone company and its connections.

The Illinois Telephone company has this month issued a new directory. The directory is revised and issued twice a year, or at intervals of six months. This frequent revision keeps it up to date. As the number of telephone subscribers increases the popularity of the directory as a book of reference increases.
